THEOLOGY OF THE BODY FOR TEENS TRAINING

The Diocese of Palm Beach Office of Natural Family Planning has announced an upcoming training seminar “Theology of the Body for Teens Training” set to take place on Saturday January 26, 2008 at the Pastoral Center, 9995 N. Military Trail, Palm Beach Gardens, FL.

The full-day training will focus on the exciting Theology of the Body for Teens curriculum which is based on the revolutionary teachings of Pope John Paul II. Teachers, youth ministers, campus ministers and anyone who works with teens in the Church will learn how to convey to teens the knowledge and understanding they desire concerning the meaning and purpose of human sexuality according to God’s great plan for love and life. Attendees will discover how the language of Pope John Paul II’s Theology of the Body can help teens embrace the timeless teachings of the Catholic Church.

The seminar special guest presenter is Todd Lemieux. Mr. Lemieux has been involved in youth ministry for almost ten years. He is a regular contributor as a writer to Life Teen for both their website and for the catechesis in their quarterly publications. He has presented and trained audiences on such topics as youth ministry, Scripture, "Deus Caritas Est", and Theology of the Body at colleges, conferences, and retreats for youth around the country. His first book, co-written with Mark Hart is titled, 100 Things Every Catholic Teen Should Know. He and his wife of four years live on Long Island with their daughter. They are expecting their second child in April of 2008.

Registration is $60 per person which includes materials and lunch. For more information please contact Meaghan Weaver at meg615@gmail.com or contact 561-575-7461.
