STATEMENT FROM THE DIOCESE OF PALM BEACH ON BEHALF OF ST. ANASTASIA SCHOOL

The Saint Anastasia School and Parish community continues to grieve over the loss of one of our students. Today, our fifth grade students turned to our Lord for guidance by attending morning Mass together. Professional grief counselors from the Diocese of Palm Beach Critical Incident Stress Management Team (CISM) were on-hand to meet with students and parents throughout the day. Diocesan and local grief counselors will be available as needed to meet with any student, parent, or staff member in the days ahead. We ask for continued prayers for the student's family as well as the entire school community during this difficult time of loss.
