STATEMENT REGARDING SACRED HEART SCHOOL

Sacred Heart Catholic School in Lake Worth Florida is pleased to announce after several weeks of aggressive fundraising which resulted in an outpouring of support from so many around the Diocese, the school will remain open for the next academic year of 2010-2011.

Sacred Heart administration thanks all of those who made this possible through their generous response to our public plea for support. Sacred Heart School administration wishes to assure all that we will continue to be aggressive in securing its future for the continuance of excellent Catholic education for our fine young people.

Responding to Sacred Heart's announcement today, Bishop Gerald M. Barbarito said, "I congratulate Sacred Heart School on its successful fundraising endeavors to keep their school open for the 2010 – 2011 academic year. The love and generosity poured out by so many of our faithful who responded to Sacred Heart's urgent need for financial support is most encouraging. It is my hope that support like this within the family of faith will continue and encourage others to support not only Sacred Heart School, but our many Catholic Schools in our five-county Diocese which are a vital part of the enrichment of the faith community and the world in which we live."

Registration for the 2010 – 2011 academic year has already begun! Those interested in a tour of the school or registration information are asked to call 561-582-2242.
