VOCATIONS UPDATE-FATHER DANIEL DAZA-JALLER

Mission of the Office of Vocations and Seminarians

Key role that communication plays in parishes to encourage vocations throughout our diocese

Best resources for parish communications

https://palmbeachvocations.com

INTRODUCTION

The Office of Vocations and Seminarians of the Diocese of Palm Beach is Bishop Barbarito's diocesan office which fulfills the duty to both foster Christian vocations and accompany those being formed as diocesan priests for our diocese. Thus, this office fulfills two separate duties: fostering and promoting vocations throughout the diocese, and being the bishop's liaison with our seminarians and the seminary to ensure their proper formation.

We foster a culture of lifelong openness to God's will throughout the diocese and accompany those responding to the vocation to diocesan priesthood.

Diocese of Palm Beach Office of Vocations and Seminarians

Vision

To have a steady stream of missionary disciples of Jesus Christ discerning their vocation in order to ensure an abundance of ministers to serve the pastoral needs of the diocese.

How can I help?

PRAY

- Seminarian Poster & Prayer Card, Prayers of the Faithful
- Celebrate National Vocations Awareness Week, Good Shepherd Sunday, Priesthood Sunday & World day of Prayer for Consecrated Life.

INTEGRATE

• Help to integrate a culture of vocations in all aspects of parish & school life such as religious education, youth & young adult ministries, grandparents ministries, etc.

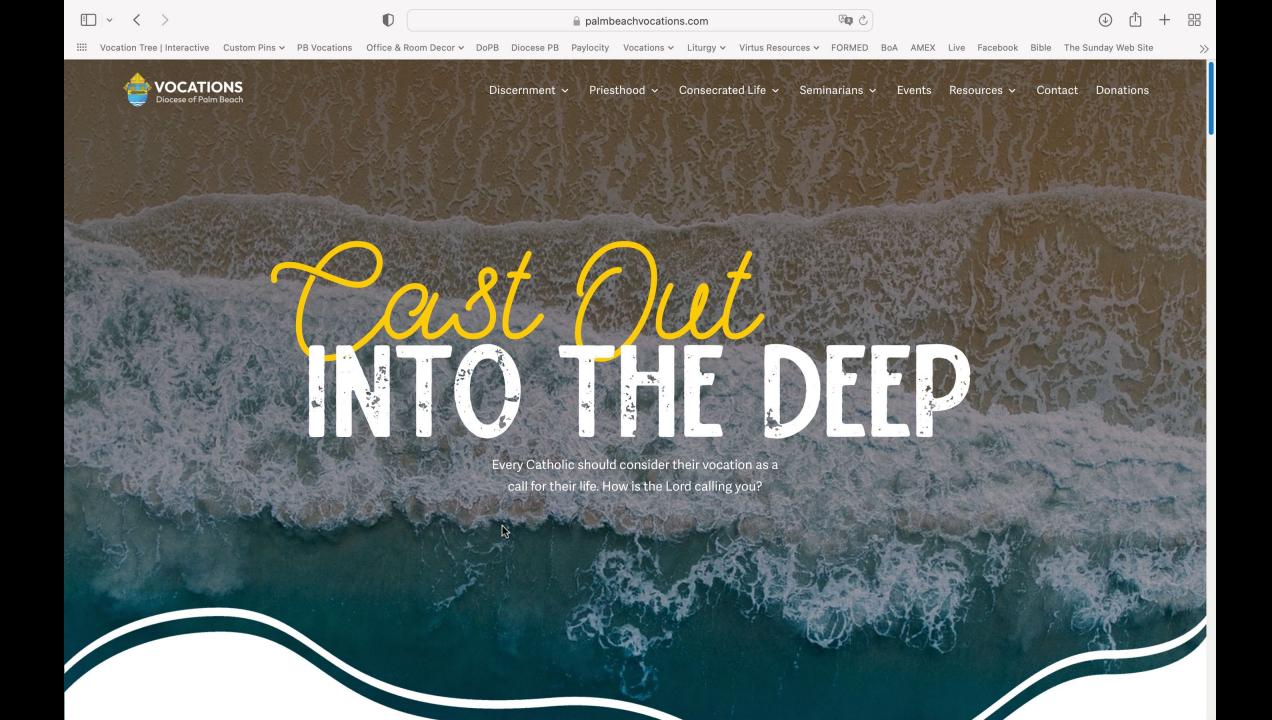

INVITE

- Personally invite young men (especially altar servers) to consider the priesthood
- Invite interested men to diocesan events (harvest dinner, VAW, discernment groups & retreats)
- Invite the Vocations Director for a weekend at your parish for Masses & to meet parish groups

It was joyful and prayer-filled at the recent Knights of Columbus 2022 Silver Rose ceremonies at St. Helen Parish in Vero Beach and St. Paul of the Cross in North Palm Beach. "The Silver Rose is a symbol of the Knights of Columbus's dedication to the 'sanctity of life,' honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe," said Michael Glatz, faith director for the St. Helen council. When Lawrence knew he would be arrested like the pope, he sought out the poor, widows, and orphans of Rome and gave them all the money he had on hand, selling even the sacred vessels of the altar t... See more
